

2 About the history of the castle

Connect the sentences:

Juval was already inhabited by groups of

The first written mention of the castle

Hans von Sinkmoser bought the fortification

From 1815 the castle fell into ruin

In the 1920s the ruin was bought by

In 1983 Reinhold Messner bought the castle

... because it was used as a farm for more than 90 years.

... and made it his refuge and a museum.

... the Dutchman William Robert Rowland who restored it.

... prehistoric hunters, as presumably also Ötzi.

... turning it into a Renaissance residence decorated with frescoes.

... dates back to 1278.

Name:

Going up the path which Tibetan greeting do you find on the floor?

K A L I S H O

In the cellars

Look around: here you will find ropes, sleeping bags, backpacks, jam and wine. Draw this mess!

In the tantra room

What is there to discover?

☒ A flute of human bones

☐ Precious scrolls

☒ The head of a yeti bear

Keep your eyes open.

What part of the castle does a crocodile live in?

3 Next to the roses.

Ask the guide
if you have any doubts.

By the way, the image of the sun-moon is the symbol of Juval.

individual solution

QUIZ AROUND

Juval

What do you think a knight who ate here looked like?

individual solution
(e.g. strong, tall, noble...)

How many steps are there in the tower of Juval Castle?49

Reinhold Messner has often trained with this rope ladder. And what great goal do you have in life that you want to strive for?

individual solution

Take a guess:

How many books are on the shelves?

- 671
- ~~○ 4.933~~
- 9.004

Which one do you particularly like? Draw it here!

individual solution

Who was Milarepa?

- o An important mountaineer
- o The architect of the glass roof
- ~~o A Tibetan mountain philosopher~~