

1 The legacy of the mountains

Connect the sentences:

The name of the MMM Ripa comes	... residence but later also as barracks, prison and school.
The museum therefore tells the	... but was later restored and strengthened.
The castle of Brunico was built in	... his fifth museum in the castle.
In 1460 it suffered considerable damage	... from Tibetan ri=mountain and pa=man.
For a long time it was used as bishop's	... 1250 by the Prince-Bishop of Brixen.
In 2011 Reinhold Messner opened	... story of mountain people all over the world.

Name:

Alps, Alto Adige/Südtirol

- > How many cowbells do you find in the farm house?.....
- > Why is the room on the ground floor so dark and black?
.....

Did you find this tiger? What people does it represent?

3

4

In the yurt: Why does this tent have a hole in the ceiling?

.....

2

You will meet more than 20 mountain peoples. Where in the world do they come from?
Indicate it by writing in the signs.

Nomads
> Can you find the animal footprints?
They take you into the world of nomads.
> Many people in the mountain use colourful patterns.
Which one do you find the most beautiful?

Cover it up.

Check the museum map to find the individual stations.

QUIZ AROUND

Ripa

Africa

> The many African figurines are very impressive, don't you think? Take a guess, how many are there?

- o 50
- o 85
- o 100

4

> Draw the funniest figurine:

Architecture

Write the corresponding country under the house:

.....

.....

.....

Create your personal Inca cape.

In tower

9

> How many steps does the castle tower have?

> Which valleys can you see from the top?

P _____ e A _____

In the nirvana tower

10

Silence and meditation are the themes here. Do you feel stressed sometimes? In what situations?

.....

Europe

5

> There was a time when coexistence between people and animals was essential to survival. Where do the sheep live in the museum?

> When did agriculture and livestock farming become established in Europe?

- o 3000 years ago
- o 5000 years ago
- o 7000 years ago

Asia

> Keep your eyes open.

Where do you find this elephant?

> So many people! Which one would you like to remember in particular? Take notes here:

Name:

Country/area:

Population:

Type of residence:

Typical clothing:

Lifestyle:

Peculiarity:

In these moments, close your eyes and try to concentrate on your breathing.